

ANNOTATED TIMELINE TO WAR

Directions: The decade before the Civil War saw many events that led to tension between North and South. Some were positive for Northern states and some for the South. Place the events below onto an interactive illustrated timeline in your notebook.

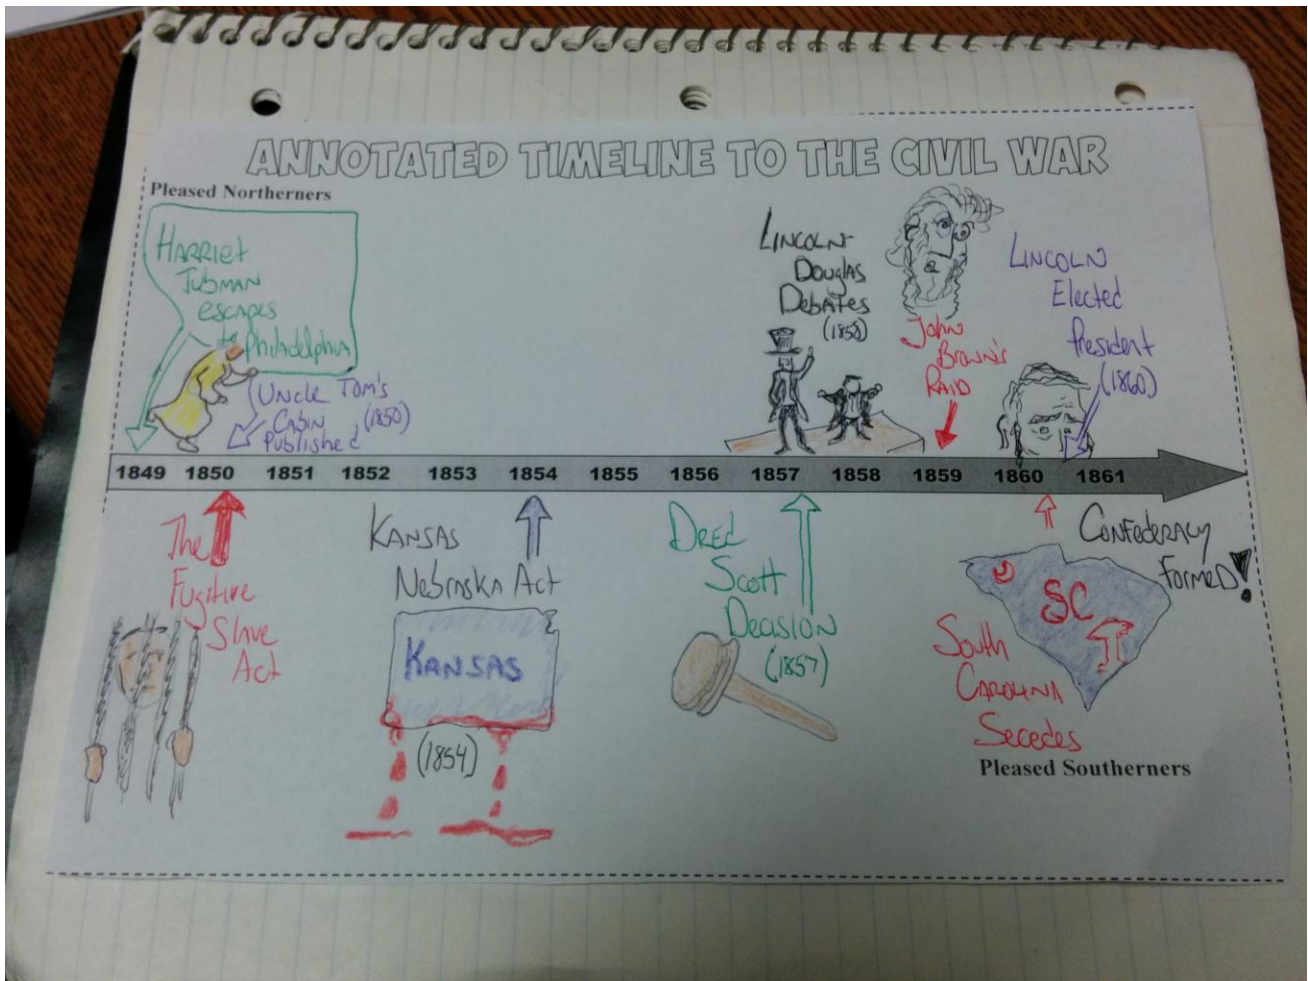

Steps

1. First find out when the event took place
2. Decide whether it was positive for the North or the South. If it was good for the North, write the event on the top half the timeline. If Southerners would be pleased, write the name of the event below the line.
3. Draw a picture to represent the event.

Events to Include

Dred Scott Decision
Abraham Lincoln Elected
Uncle Tom's Cabin published
South Carolina secedes
